

CISS says goodbye to the class of '10 then hosts the international academic competition, the World Scholar's Cup.

SCIS students slip and slide their way to fun after a day of various sports competitions during their annual field day.

More than 500 students from 30 countries celebrated International Day at SUIS in early summer.

