

◀ Carnival of culture

SCIS Pudong students and families celebrated the UN International Day of Peace on September 25. Students from the lower grades came together as one community to share the culture, dress and food of their respective homelands. Festivities kicked off with a parade of nations featuring over 30 countries represented.