

3. SCIS' Java Jam Draws 100

Shanghai Community International School began the winter concert season early in November with the fourth annual "Java Jam," a student-organized acoustic performance. On the night of Java Jam, more than 100 audience members came to support the student participants and to enjoy the night with hot chocolate, home-baked goods and relaxing music.