

SCIS Pudong Hosts College Fair

As part of the Council of International Schools (CIS) University Tour to China, a college fair was held at the Shanghai Community International School, Pudong campus on 14 March. Fair goers were able to meet admission representatives from 23 distinct and prestigious colleges and universities around the world and asked questions, which may help guide their future choices in higher education.