

6. SCIS Hosts Variety Show

Led by the Lower School Student Council members on March 27, Shanghai Community International School's 4th annual variety show was bigger than ever with over 100 student participants. The night included a true variety of performances including gymnasts, hoola-hoopers, pianists, comedians, violinists, drummers and of course plenty of singers and dancers. The show concluded with a special act including all the student council members that made the event possible. They performed a special dance as a tribute to their teachers.
